

Extension Arrangements and Press-Button Systems and Charges

PREFACE
SHEET
DLA 1

ISSUED MAY 1964

SPECIAL NOTES REFERRING ONLY TO THIS SHEET

- 1 The charges shown are intended to be a simple guide and not a comprehensive list
- 2 Exchange line charges are not included. These are given in leaflet General Information DLX 1.
- 3 The connexion charges shown are maxima. When more than one item is ordered at the same time these charges are reduced.
- 4 For extensions between buildings there is normally a connexion charge of £5 and an additional rental charge based on distance.

LEAFLET NUMBER	SERVICE OR APPARATUS PROVIDED	CONNEXION CHARGE			QUARTERLY RENTAL
		£	s	d	£	s	d
DLA 100	Plans 1, 1A (Additional telephones connected to one line) Each internal extension	2	0	0	10	0
DLA 101	Plan 2 (Two exchange lines shared by from two to six telephones) The two main telephones Each additional internal extension	4	0	0	10	0
DLA 102	Plan 4 (Telephone with plug-and-socket connexion) Plug and two sockets Each additional socket Each additional plug-in telephone	2	0	0	6	0
		2	0	0	2	0
			—		9	0
DLA 103	Plans 105, 105A (One line, switching unit and two extensions)	5	0	0	2	10	0
	Plans 107, 107A (One line, switching unit and one extension)	3	0	0	1	15	0

PLEASE READ THE SPECIAL NOTES

LEAFLET NUMBER	SERVICE OR APPARATUS PROVIDED	CONNEXION CHARGE			QUARTERLY RENTAL
		£	s	d	£	s	d
DLA 104	Plan 9 (Two switchboard extensions connected to one telephone)	3	0	0	1	0	0
DLA 105	Plan 12A (An extension telephone which can be cut off at will)	2	0	0	16	0
DLA 120	House Exchange System (1 + 5) Keymaster (An intercommunication system with up to five telephones, and one line)
	Each telephone	8	0	0	2	10	0
	Special extension (with restricted facilities)	2	0	0	2	10	0
DLA 121	House Exchange System (2 + 10) (An intercommunication system with up to ten telephones, and two lines)
	Each telephone	8	0	0	2	10	0
	Special extension (with restricted facilities)	2	0	0	2	10	0

PLEASE READ THE SPECIAL NOTES